VII. Committee Reports-

- Junior Fair Board
 - Representing Junior Fair Board: Chloe Brunton, Dalton Bush, Isabelle Capsel, Izzy Erler, Addie Keplar, Lila Merritt, Jacob Smith, Haylie Stultz, Carolyn Yarnell, and Layla Yoe
 - Dalton Bush reported that at their last meeting they approved budgets for committees. Cloverbud committee will be the same as last year. They were interested in working with senior fair board to bring in the balloon guy for their Friday event.
 - Carolyn Yarnell reported that showman to showman will be pretty much the same as before. The only change will be switching horses with llamas and alpacas.
 - Education and social media committee reported they would like to reach a younger audience and would like to create a separate Instagram account that would collaborate with senior fair board accounts. Senior fair board agreed they could have their own account as long as post approval goes through a representative on senior fair board social media committee, That representative will be Samantha Mayhugh.
 - Stock the trailer committee asked senior fair board for help getting a trailer as well as being able to store non perishable items at the fairgrounds. Fair board agreed they could use the amphitheater kitchen. They would also like help advertising and creating a qr code again for monetary donations.
 - Royalty committee reported that they would like to switch the King awards to belt buckles instead of hats. They would like royalty to start doing social media posts as well as meet and greets with the clover bud kids.
- Joy Sharp reported project numbers for this year. Overall livestock numbers are up slightly at 860. Non-livestock projects dropped a little to 405. Quality Assurance sign up links have been posted. 7 members from Pickaway County went to state QA training to get certified. Award sponsors are still being sorted for fair book. There are only 92 sponsors for all awards and we are down close to $2000 in sponsorships.
- Livestock Sale Committee
 - Jeff Wippel reported as a reminder that spring tag in is April 18th. Their next meeting is the last Wednesday of March.
 - Tag in: April 18th
